Let's Step out for

The year of 1949 caught a spirit of evolution and change, as Shore High continued to grow with the times, accentuated by the quickened tempo of an alert student body and faculty. Traditions that have been followed many years, are drawing to a close, and soon the intimate family of Shore High, a family distinct in the degree of its loyalty and friendship, shall say adieu . . .

Come with us, as we record our last year at Shore . . . as we trace the memories and events, our work and play together . . . look and listen closely . . . the faint reverberations of the once mighty cheers of Shore High students . . . the sparkle and glamour of a formal dance . . . outstanding days in an outstanding year . . . this is Shore High in perspective.

This 1949 Log is a story of high adventure. It records the happy experiences of a large group of young people through four eventful years of high school. During this period of time, underneath the routine classroom procedure there has been an intensive search for high character and sound convictions. The fact that effort does count has come to be regarded as one of the surest things in the whole universe.

As this annual goes to press, these young people are becoming more and more aware of their responsibilities. Upon them our country must depend for keen vision and sound judgment. The hour of crises has been reached in many fields. We must not prove unfaithful to our solemn tasks. Therefore, we welcome this splendid group of young people to an association with adult life with the feeling that in them we neither need to be afraid nor to be ashamed.

RUSSELL H. ERWINE

SENIORS OF 1949:

Physics

"Ammeters are connected in series, voltmeters in parallel," reiterates Mr. Roy Sharrock, physics instructor, in a lively laboratory discussion. As lights glow . . . bells ring . . . and motors purr, this class is taught how and why the mechanical world ticks.

Solid Geometry

Lateral area . . . prisms . . . cones . . . spheres . . . frustrums . . . altitudes . . . Such terms dash through the minds of Mr. Donald Mill's predominantly male solid geometry classes. Finding how high Z is, and whether I is crossed by A or M is the problem confronting this class of future mathematical wizards.

Chemistry

Atomic weights and Planetary electrons . . . Orbits . . . RA-226.05 . . . Chemical reactions . . . all these are well understood by Mr. Harry Spangler's chemistry students. During a laboratory periods twice a week they have an opportunity to test text book theories.

English

From Shakespeare and his life to "your good friend and mine, P. T. Barnum," Mr. Meryl Baumer injects his scintillating humor into his English classes. Discussions concerning Beowulf, the Victorian period, and the twentieth century are all a part of this course.

Psychology

Troubled with a complex? . . . Is life getting you down? . . . These and many questions like them are answered in Mr. Lester Angene's psychology classes. During the semester the pupils learn the forces motivating human behavior, and the always valuable method of "how to win friends and influence people."

Dramatics

"Murder at Mrs. Loring's" is the play occupying the attention of Mr. Baumer's dramatics class. Participating in classroom plays enables the student to apply the stage techniques he has learned from lectures and books.

French

"Bonjour" . . . "Comment Allez-vous" . . . Mr. Anthony Vaccariello's French class although small in number is wise in wisdom, for a small group is conducive to intensive study and frequent discussion.

Spanish

"Hasta Luego" . . . "Muy Bien" . . . These are common phrases heard every day in Miss Margarette Patrick's Spanish classes. In this course the pupil is introduced to the language and acquainted with the life and customs in Spain and Mexico.

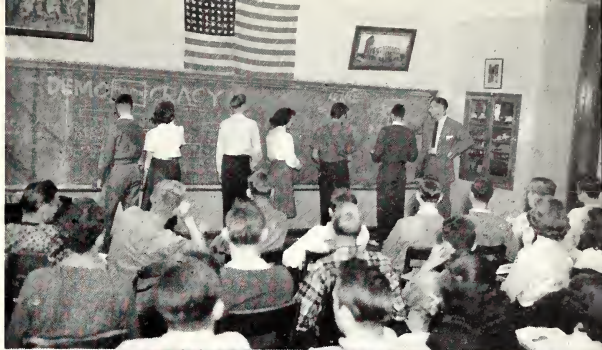

Study Hall

Giving the student free time in which to do his homework is the purpose of the study hall system. Students are assigned to study hall when they have a free period, and manage to use their time wisely so that after school they are free to attend club meetings and participate in school activities.

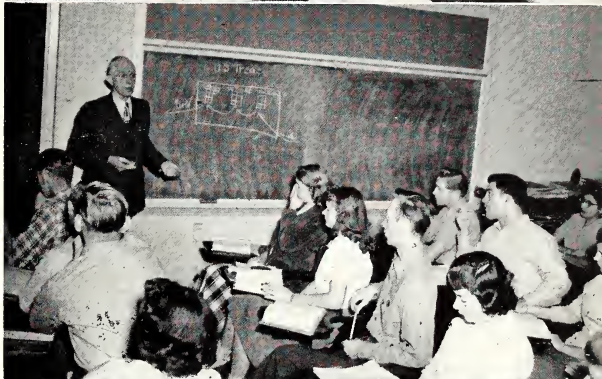

Government

Powers and Duties of Congress . . . The function of the I.C.C. . . . These and other phases of our government are made clear to all pupils in Mr. Robert Jamieson's Government classes. Needs and benefits of good government bring about many discussions in which the students learn the importance of each governmental department.

American History

Giving every student a greater appreciation of the history and culture of the United States is a duty assigned to Mr. Stanley Whiteside, instructor of American History classes. Through informal class lectures and recitation, the pupil recognizes the factors comprising the building of our nation.

Government

American Government, a required subject at Shore, acquaints the students with politics both at home and abroad. How the president and his staff function are of great interest to this class instructed by Miss Wilma Gillman.

Sewing

"Lady of Fashion" might be the name applied to a pupil of the sewing class instructed by Miss Edith Lemon. Beginning with learning to hem and mend in the junior high, the student steadily progresses in her work to the point where she can proudly exhibit a handmade suit, dress, coat, or evening gown.

Shop

One of the most informal classes is manual training, instructed by Mr. Clarence Eckert. During the daily periods, the boys are trained to take their place in the world, knowing the fundamentals of a manual career.

Cooking

Under Miss Hetty Rosenberger's capable supervision, junior and senior high girls learn, first hand, the art of cooking and baking. New gas stoves, recently installed, are part of the modern equipment used.

Journalism

Aspiring journalists enroll in Mr. Roy Hinch's introductory course, to acquaint themselves with the various phases of the present day newspaper. Practical application and further study is acquired by working on the "Breeze," the "Friday Morning Institution."

Business

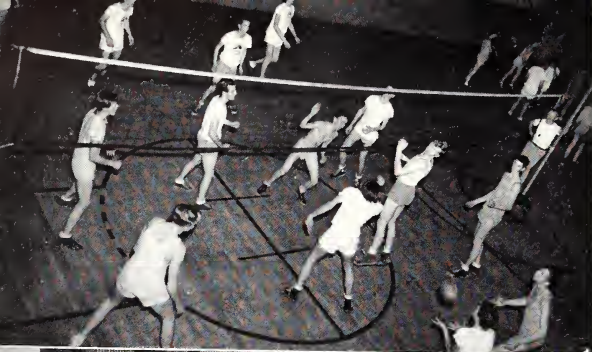

Banking and legal forms are only a part of the curriculum offered in the Business course. This class, instructed by Miss Jean Bell, acquaints the students with commercial forms of the outside world and brings an understanding of every day problems to Shore pupils.

Library

A privilege which the students enjoy is using the library for reference during study hall periods and after school. Miss Bowditch and her assistant, Miss Guntner, aid the pupils in finding suitable books in accordance with their needs.

Boy's Gym Class

Deep-knee bends . . . push ups . . . and a fast moving game of volley-ball are all a part of the physical education classes under the joint supervision of Mr. Swackhamer, Mr. Case and Mr. DiBiasio. Once every two weeks the boys are presented with a guidance program in which social and family problems are discussed.

Girl's Gym Class

Volleyball . . . is just one of the many sports which the girl's gym classes enjoy. Under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Gill and Miss Virginia Bell, the girls learn good sportsmanship and fair play as well as basketball, field hockey, baseball, and badminton.

Art Class

Beginning with simple sketches, the students advance to water colors and oils. To express their artistic talent and improve their technique, Shore students are instructed in painting and sketching by Mr. Alexander Waselkov.

Hilarious plays . . . melodious concerts . . . and sad Commencements are all in a night's work of ushering for the Service Club. "If there is any work to be done, the Service Club will do it."

This motto could well be used by Miss Campbell's courteous organization, whose duties are many and varied. This year the girls, aside from selling school supplies and ushering, adopted a large Kentucky family and sent them many packages of food and clothing.

STUDENT COUNCIL ADVISORY BOARD

Shore's student government is a democratic organization which represents the entire student body. The members of the Council formulate plans, solve student problems, create a favorable student-teacher relationship and sponsor many annual affairs.

Each homeroom elects a representative to participate in the council. Mr. Miller and Miss Jones are the sponsors of this vital organization.

The Advisory Board is the part of the government which selects projects, introduces new programs, and nominates officers for the following year. To become a member you must be elected by the council.

ROW ONE—T. Carney, P. Alexander, B. Sears, W. Aldred, Mr. Gebhart, P. Wolff, ROW TWO—D. Earl, W. Green, V. Struna, D. West, D. Southwick, A. Snider, M. Makman, M. Kaplin, J. Lowell.

The Shore Science Club, reorganized last year under the direction of James Gebhart, continued to be one of the most active and educational organizations at Shore this year.

The general theme and interests of the club have centered around biology and natural science. Under the guidance of a few members interested in "ham" radio a study of radio and electronics was conducted. A trip to the Lighting Institute at Nela Park was one of the outstanding events of the year.

ROW ONE—Miss Williams, B. Smith, C. Montgomery, M. Hill, J. Montgomery. ROW TWO—B. Griffith, S. Shields, D. Bastaick, C. Becvar, L. Steffan, N. Wallauz. ROW THREE—A. Tarantino, A. Mast, M. "What a day," sigh future teachers after a session of trying to control and teach a group of elementary students. Organized in an effort to provide experience for aspiring teachers, the Future Teachers Club members learn how it feels to be at the head of the class. By doing practice teaching in the lower grades the members are endeavoring to find a better and more modern method of establishing pupil-teacher relationships.

"Little sister's questions . . . big sister's answers." The job of the Senior Sisters Club is to acquaint freshman girls with high school life. A freshman girl's "big sister" helps her with any problems she may have.

To be eligible for the Senior Sisters a girl must be in the 11A, 12B, or 12A class with a good scholastic rating. She must be approved by Miss Albrecht, dean of Girls, her homeroom advisor, and Miss Pierson, sponsor of the club.

Members of this club are selected senior boys whose duty it is to help freshman boys become better acquainted with Shore school. Besides helpful everyday "chumming," a get-acquainted night was held.

Each senior boy and his six freshman brothers constituted a team. A basketball tournament, relay races, and wrestling matches comprised an evening of relaxation, entertainment, and guidance.

Each January at a solemn and impressive ceremony, worthy members of the Junior and Senior classes are initiated into the National Honor Society. The members of this society must rank high in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

To be chosen a member of the N.H.S. is the greatest honor which a high school can bestow on its students. One of the projects of the N.H.S. was to sell programs at the annual basketball tournament to raise money for a wire recorder. The club is under the direction of Mr. Stanley Whiteside.

I Remember Mama

"I Remember Mama," a wholesome comedy produced by Mr. Angene and the Junior Class, will always remain prominent in the minds of Shoreites as one of the best.

The play centers around "Mama," (Pat Wawrzyniak), Papa (Ray Widowski), and their children, Dagmar, (Kathy Bates), Christine, (Joan Toth), Nels, (Ray Brandt), and Katrin (Barbara Griffith), who tells the story.

"Mama's" three sisters, portrayed by Mary C. Byrum, Kathryn Reese, and Elizabeth Jonassen, complicate the plot, while, Uncle Chris, "the black Swede," lends humor and tenderness.

Swift change of twenty-eight scenes, and difficult properties, demanded an alert, well-trained production staff. Although little credit is given, much is deserved, by this hard working group behind the curtain. The Production Staff for "I Remember Mama" was headed by:

The success of "January Thaw" was largely determined by the magnificent stage set which was built by members of the production staff under the direction of Ford Case.

Double landing stairs . . . manufactured snow . . . glass windows . . . Dutch doors . . . all combined to be one of the finest sets ever to be erected on the Shore stage.

Extensive publicity insured the success of the last Senior play and large scale ticket-selling campaigns and efficient reservation accommodations provided sell-out houses for both nights of the production.

MARCHING BAND

"Forward march! Concadence count!" These familiar phrases rang in the ears of members of the marching band all during football season. Every morning at seven forty-five, these sleepy musicians marched up and down the football field practicing routines for the games. At the Shore vs. Central game, they combined with their opponent's band for a performance, looking forward to next year. The band traveled to every game where they performed along with the majorettes.

SENIOR CHOIR

"Of thee I sing — " The Shore Senior Choir has completed the last year of vocal music, remembering those robe fittings, double period rehearsals, and their beloved directors, John Beck and Miss Jan Tompkins. The choir sang at the Christmas concert and Gala Night. One number that no member will forget is "There Were Shepherds," taken from St. Luke's Gospel story of Christmas, which they sang at the Christmas Festival.

Shore's 1948 football season was filled with surprises and disappointments for the Admirals who chalked up five wins against two set-backs.

Shore journeyed to ZANESVILLE September 17 for their season opener, only to drop a 27-7 decision to the down-staters. Fullback Bob Marich hit pay-dirt for the Admirals' first touchdown of the season. The squad took advantage of an open date the next week by scrimmaging Holy Name.

October 1 found Coach Walt Schwegler's crew routing PARMA 13-0 here at Shore to avenge last season's 19-0 loss. Captain Burg Lewis and Rollie Cicerelli provided the Admirals' scoring. Cicerelli went on to become one of the real "finds" of the season with his consistent defensive play.

The following week the Admirals took advantage of their sea-going knowledge by turning back MAPLE HEIGHTS 7-0 in the Conference opener. The game was played during a heavy rain that found only Marich able to score, "in the mud bowl."

GARFIELD HEIGHTS was the scene of a real thriller on October 15. Shore took a 12-0 half-time lead, when Gene Wilson and Bob Marich scored, only to have Garfield roar back to a 13-12 third quarter margin as Shore suddenly became plagued with injuries. The Admirals bounced back in the fourth quarter when Ralph Moon and Frank Brown tallied to give the "green and white" a 24-13 victory.

Shore ended its 27-year-old rivalry with EUCLID CENTRAL October 22 on Shore field by taking an 8-0 thriller from the Lions. Lewis scored the game's only six-pointer.

BRUSH'S ARC LIGHTS blazed past the Admirals on the Korb Field October 28, 20-12. This was Brush's first win over Shore in 11 years. George Klein and Ralph Moon chalked up TD's for the Admirals.

BEDFORD bowed to Shore 24-0 with Ed Nobbs, Jack Hoag, Jack Thompson and Ralph Moon doing the scoring, November 5, on Shore's turf, to close the Admirals' last football season.

Reserve Write - Up

A repeat performance was given when the close of the 1948-49 season turned out another Eastern Conference championship B team for the Shore reserves. The "Junior" Admirals ended the season with nine wins and three defeats. Under the able coaching of "Sparky" Di Biaso the boys dropped their first game to the Alumni and the next two to a strong Garfield five, but finished strong by beating Brush 37-32 and 36-26; Bedford 31-24 and 41-31; Maple 33-25 and 30-29; Euclid Central 35-30 and 28-26; University 45-37.

Finishing second in the Eastern Conference, winning two tournament games against Cleveland Senate teams, and maintaining one of the finest coaching records in scholastic basketball were the major accomplishments of the Admiral hoopsters in 1948-49.

After a loss to the Alumni and a victory over Maple Heights, the Bulldogs from Garfield invaded the Shore Gym. The Admirals closed a large gap to nine points in the final period but time ran out.

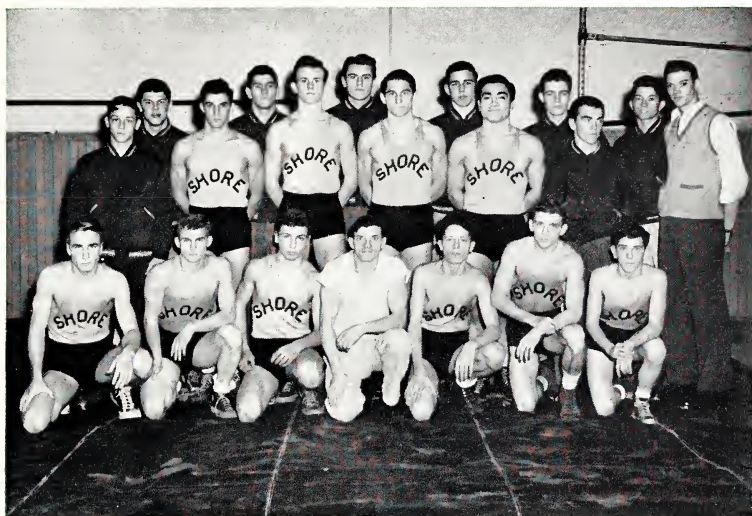

Then came the upset. Playing at home the Sailors were edged by Bedford 32-31 and plunged into third place.

Next was the second Garfield game. A squeaker . . . The Admirals saw their small lead erased in the last few minutes and the chance for an upset slip through their grasp.

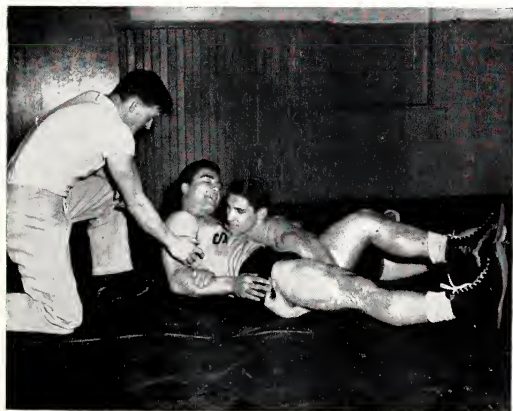

The Green and White finished the season with five straight victories over Euclid Central, Brush, Bedford, Collinwood and East Tech. The Bedford victory gave the Sailors second place and preserved Ford Case's record of never having finished lower than second place in the Eastern Conference since coming to Shore.

Then came the semi-finals of the tournament . . . Garfield again! . . . and as Mayor Sims said at the trophy presentation . . . "Any team that beats Shore three times has to be a champion . . ."

So ended the season of the last basketball team Shore will ever be able to call its own.

Coach Eckert's advice paid off for State Champs Marich and Fox.

This year's wrestling squad wrote a fitting climax to Shore High's last year of athletic competition, by winning the City Championship crown as well as bringing to Shore its first State Championship.

Starting their schedule in fine style, the grapplers edged WEST TECH, last year's co-champions, 18-14. In the second meet Shore swamped GARFIELD, 26-11 with an impressive showing from Phil Gutman who pinned his opponent in both the second and third periods.

Against LAKEWOOD, the other claimant to last year's title, the matmen wrestled an exciting see-saw battle which ended in an 18-18 deadlock. BENEDICTINE fell, 28-11 and JOHN HAY, 33-12, as the grapplers got back into their stride again.

In an independent meet, UNIVERSITY gave the Shore boys a scare as they led until the final match when Bob Marich pinned his opponent to tie the meet, 17-17.

Swamping the previously undefeated JOHN ADAMS team, 29-8, and CUYAHOGA FALLS, 33-3, the Shore matmen were well on their way to the City title. SHAKER HEIGHTS, the only big threat, fell 21-16 on the Shore mats.

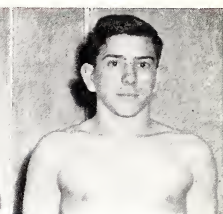

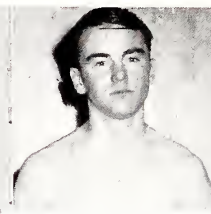

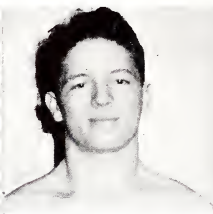

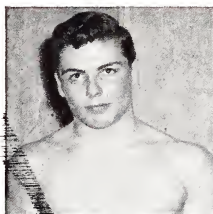

Winding up the season the wrestlers overwhelmed BEDFORD, 26-6 and beat Toledo DEVILBISS, 22-12, remaining the only undefeated team in the City and winning the CITY CHAMPIONSHIP!

Champions

Euclid Shore went into the State Invitational Wrestling Tournament as underdog to the powerful West side schools, but emerged victorious.

Bill Erb received two points when he pinned his first two opponents and went on to win the 113-lb. State Title. Frank Brown, although he lost, collected one point before he was eliminated. Jack Hoag went down in a thriller, but came back in the consolation match to win a third place.

Dick Fox, undefeated in dual competition, continued his victory streak by winning Shore's second individual championship. Phil Gutman pinned one opponent and received a second place.

Bob Marich took first place in the heavyweight division, to end the scoring and give Shore its first STATE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Fifteen wins and only one loss won another Eastern Conference championship for Shore's diamond team. Under the able coaching of John Pohto, the Admirals were finally stopped by Parma in the district finals. Plagued by injuries the Redmen slipped by to win . . .

An experienced squad was on hand to start the season. Nine lettermen returned to the fold with one in each position. Heading the lineup were Captain Frank Joranko, shortstop; John Javoris, third base; Gene Pringle, second base; John Mihelich, first base; Ray Ogreen, outfield; Tom Ahey, pitching; Jack Wenning and Frank Brown in the outfield.

The defending champions opened their season by losing a non-conference game to Shaw, 2-0. Steady improvement showed in their next game, as they rolled over Willoughby, 10-0. A return engagement with Shaw substantiated Coach Pohto's faith in the boys, when the final score tallied with the Admirals ahead, 5-0.

Euclid Central also fell in their wake, losing both games, 3-0, and 6-2. The winning streak continued, as Garfield dropped two, 5-2, and 1-0; Brush followed suit, 6-4, and 4-0; Bedford lost 9-0, and 3-2; Willoughby, shut out in their first encounter, 10-0, and defeated again, 19-2. Other teams contributing to Shore's winning streak were, Cleveland Heights, 7-3; Painesville, 5-2; and Collinwood, 5-3.

Amassing a total of fifteen consecutive victories concluded another successful year for the CHAMPIONS.

ROW ONE—P. Baynes, G. Binder, B. Marich, E. Nobbe, J. Kleindeinst, J. Rebel. ROW TWO—Mr. Case, B. Lindsay, A. Pettit, G. Klein, L. Sbrocco, B. Callwill, B. Abbott. ROW THREE—Mr. Swackhamer, T. The 1948 Track team, coached by Ford L. Case, Clarence Swackhammer, and Ira Stubbart, and captained by Byron Fondron, proved to be one of the most successful teams in the history of Shore.

Victorious in three major meets, the tracksters displayed fine spirit and strength throughout the season.

The Admiral cindermen opened the season by capturing the Division III crown at the Arena Interscholastic Meet. Two weeks later the thinclads traveled to Mansfield where, amid stiff competition, Burgess Lewis snared a third place in the 440-yard dash.

On successive week-ends, the Admirals placed 12 among 65 schools at Ohio Wesleyan, lost their Mentor Relay crown by $2\frac{1}{2}$ points, easily won the Rocky River Relays and finished a splendid third in the district meet. Cleveland Central and East Tech, state powers, were the only teams better than Shore.

Qualifying for the state meet was the crack mile-relay team composed of Bar Fondron, Steve Janovac, Jake Reebel, and Burgie Lewis. Also qualifying were Burg Lewis, Bill Thompson, and Bob Marich, in the 440-yard dash, the broad jump and the shot-put, respectively. The relay team nabbed fifth place in the state with a time of 3:30:7. The winning time was 3:29:2.

The season ended successfully on a high note with a fine triumph in the Eastern Conference Meet, a fitting climax to a brilliant season.

OUR SOCIAL LIFE

"In September . . . my doors were opened wide to well over 1800 students, who noticed that during the summer vacation, with cleaning, painting, and repairing, I, too, had acquired the "New Look." . . . Yes, I was intent upon making my last year as "Shore High" an outstanding one.

In October . . . activities really started rolling . . . Baseball was suddenly brought into the picture when Shoreite Tony Cipriano received a real (??) live present from Bill Veeck . . . A horse called "Slu-foot" who was allowed to graze on my green and white pastures until the ex-sailor boy finally had to give it away.

The World's Champions Cleveland Indians brought me back into the local limelight again as their clown and Hollywood glamour boy, Jackie Price, brought back a car (a custom-built orchid convertible) load of girls from their Victory Parade.

The excitement brought some students from their classes, while others leaned out of the windows to get a better look at Jackie and his new Buick.

I certainly can't forget "The Man Who Never Forgets," Elize Bown, who stumped my student body at an assembly October 19th . . . Lois Webb, Bert Brocone, and Ted Henn were among those who were amazed while they assisted Mr. Bown.

Spooks . . . goblins . . . but mostly parties were on the agenda during the week of Halloween. And I'm sure that the Friendship Hi-Y members won't forget their masked party held October 26.

Topping the evening of fun and laughter was an original Hallowe'en skit given by Barb Wilson, Lois Webb, and Vincetta Iacobacci.

During the season dances after the home football games were both unique and popular . . . It seemed to me that my people never tired of dances, and of course my doors were always open when there was a promise of an enjoyable evening.

Chartered busses for all of the "away" football games made it possible for my team to have a large and faithful following throughout the season. Laughter and songs were part of this happy crowd, including Barb Wilson, Mr. Vaccariello and cheer-leaders Nancy Setron, Audrey Mast, Dolores Frobotta, and Marlene Kraus.

In November . . . The gridders ended their season in second place and bid farewell to the Eastern Conference as far as football was concerned . . . But, for most of my people, the real climax to football came at the annual "Football Dance" . . . balloons . . . crepe paper streamers . . . and a white throne for "Her Majesty" . . . were all part of this dance.

With true royalty Marlene Gallitto was proclaimed my last Football Queen, and was escorted in the grand march by Captain Berg Lewis . . . Ardelle Meyers, a Junior, and Pat Toth, a Sophomore., were chosen as the queen's attendants. Escorts were Dick Fox and George Klein.

I shall never forget that outstanding production . . . "I Remember Mama" given by the Junior Class on November 19 and 20 . . . The cast and production staff, under the direction of Mr. Lester Angene, combined to make the fast moving 28 scenes a real success . . . ("It was goot!") . . .

"Mama" (Pat Wawrzyniak) gave a successful party at her home for the cast and production staff after the play Friday night . . . "Fun was had by all" . . . agreed Dolores Weinke, Jo Ann Crosswell, Pat Solon, Liz Jonassen, Jean Hug, and Betty Cressman.

The 1949 Log Staff, really swung into action, with Carole Beeson and Jim Butler at the helm . . . Betty Lou Thomas worked on the Budget, while Elizabeth Palko, Marlene Gallitto, Harold Prosser, and Barb Repicky began the long job of scheduling pictures.

At an assembly, the first project by the LOG Staff . . . Nominees for Senior and Junior Log Queens were announced. The Senior Class ballots were counted . . . Pat Collins, Nancee Drach and Joan Morris as the three prettiest girls in the class.

The Juniors in like manner decided upon Kay Sturm, Joan Toth, and Marlene Kraus . . . I was so proud of my girls as I knew any one of them would make a fine queen . . . Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors voted . . . Nancee Drach and Marlene Kraus won in a very close election.

Carole Beeson and Ward Nolan, both Seniors, were proclaimed "Shore's Smoothest Dancers" at the swell Thanksgiving dance sponsored by the Sophomore class November 24th . . . The two were "given the bird," in the form of a capon rooster named Oswald, which was first prize in the dance contest.

With December . . . came the annual alumni game in which the "seniors of yesterday" met the "seniors of today." In a fast moving game the Varsity lost to the Alumni team composed of such well known Shore athletes as Ed Sullivan, Bob Hawley, and Jack Obert.

. . . But in the next game my boys came back to defeat Brush in a real conference thriller . . . Ralph Moon and the cheerleaders kept the crowd busy with . . . Victory . . . Shore Speller . . . and T - E - A - M.

After four years of hard work, one of my greatest ambitions was realized when the Public Address System was properly installed December 14 . . . Marilyn Mathers tests the "mike" . . . as Joan Toth, Jim Verbsky and Mr. Stanley Whiteside look on.

Christmas Formal

Arriving for an evening of fun are
... Ardelle Meyers, Jean Feldman, Joe

A chat between dances is always popular ... Ward Nolan, Carole Beeson,

ship President Judy Curdy, and Hi-Y
President Berg Lewis ...

... After the "Brawl" was over ... just kidding, of course, are ... Don Samuel, Vaughn Fitzpatrick, Nancy Will,
Fred Andreucci ...

Gay festive parties were on everyone's calendar during Christmas vacation . . . Elaine Schottke played hostess . . . and proudly displayed her gaily decorated tree and lovely gifts . . .

. . . "Three ball in the side pocket" . . . The pool table was a popular spot at Jean Hug's party. Shore and Central students mingled for an evening of dancing . . . food . . . and games . . .

In January . . . we met our long-standing rival, Euclid Central, and my boys netted 28 points to their 25 . . . After the game, rivalry was forgotten, as Shore played host with a dance in the old gym.

Then I saw forty-five more of my people walk out of my doors, diplomas in hand, and ready to meet the problems of the world . . . It was a happy, yet sad occasion, as I knew there would be only one more class to graduate from "Shore High."

... And they did ... My boys proved that the sign held by Sophomores Pat Cooney, Barb Key, Celia Morgan, Alice Tarantino, and Pat Toth was the truth.

In February ... came more parties, parties, and?, why, more parties. Wieners ... pop ... potato chips ... all this and more was responsible for the good time had all by at Phylis Gosnell's house after the Garfield game February 4.

Journal ... Holiday ... Post ... These and many others could be purchased from Shore students during the two-week long Magazine Subscription Drive, sponsored by the LOG staff and headed by senior Barb Wilson.

A little humor was brought into my halls when the "Short Skirt Brigade" began. My senior gals went "old look" for one hectic week of fun and laughter until the boys finally decided to accept the "new look" once and for all.

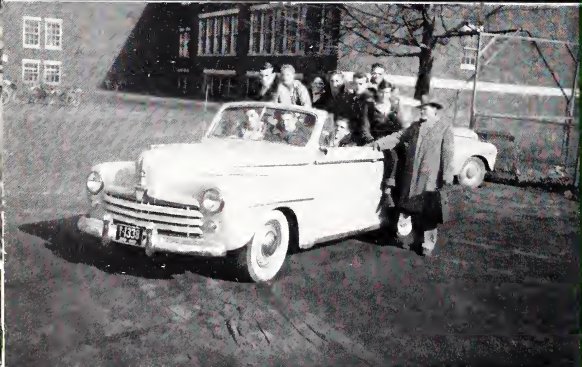

My happy people celebrating a basketball victory with the usual dance to the unbeatable music of Hal Prosser and his records.

From refreshments to ticket selling, Ad Committee members were to be seen every night at the Tournaments . . . For eleven nights Mr. Spangler and his crew worked hard and well as Shore played host to Senate, and Lake Erie League, as well as Eastern Conference teams.

Shore matmen brought the wrestling crown for city and state champs to a very proud student body . . . Three of my boys, Bob Marich, Bill Erb, and Captain Dick Fox won State first places. . . Bill's father gave him a Ford convertible for the accomplishment . . . Good Sports All!

At the "Casbar," Euclid Teen-age Canteen, Shore students mix with boys and girls from all over Cleveland . . . Soft drinks are served and a floor show of student talent is presented.

Spring

Formal

A gala evening was enjoyed by all who attended Shore's last Gala Night ... as the "B O Trio" (the only four-man trio in existence) entertained with such songs as "The Tack" and "Coney Island Babe."

As a grand finale Miss Jan Tomkins presented a western scene entitled "Country Style." The seventh graders accompanied the music with a square dance ... the entire program was kept moving by "M.C." Chuck Johnson.

At the end of the basketball season came the long-to-be-remembered "basketball dance." Mona Egger was crowned "Shore's last Basketball Queen." Attendants were Dorothy Funk and Dolores Frabotta. Captain Ed Nobbe escorted Mona to the throne and presented her with a crown of green and white carnations and a gold basketball.

In April ... came the Spring formal ... with perfume ... flowers ... and pretty girls decorating the scene ...

In May ... came the Junior-Senior Prom and what dance will ever take its place ... With the Prom came the time for my last senior class to bid 12 years of study and social life, farewell ...

But in June ... the 7th to be exact, the graduating class of 1949, the last graduating class I shall ever see, marched down the aisles to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance to receive their diplomas ... I knew my usefulness had come to an end and yet I also knew that although I would no longer live as the once mighty Shore High, I would never die; that I would live forever in the hearts of those I had graduated, and I was happy ... The Best Location in the Nation to Give YOU the Most Service

The Cleveland Engraving Co., located in the heart of industrial America, is convenient to a wide area in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia, Indiana, and Michigan.

WE SOLVE YOUR ENGRAVING PROBLEMS
AND SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY

In Sincere Appreciation . . .

We would like to take this opportunity to honor in our own way, several people who have done so much for this book . . .

. . . First comes Mr. Russell H. Erwine . . . Superintendent of Schools . . . who has given Euclid such a splendid school system in which students have the opportunity to publish annuals like this.

. . . Dr. Leonard E. Loos . . . Shore Principal . . . who . . . despite his hospitalization . . . has taken an active interest in the success of the book.

. . . Mr. Robert B. Jamieson . . . Advisor. We cannot honor this man enough . . . He has done so much with so little recognition that we feel we should say something about him here . . . Within certain limitations imposed by budget and common sense . . . he has given us full control of this book . . . And his guidance and hard work have helped us and inspired us to do the best we know how.

. . . Miss Jean Bell . . . Business Advisor . . . Has provided a budget larger than usual which . . . however . . . was quickly eaten up . . . and then thought of other methods of raising money.

. . . Mr. Partridge . . . Chessire Photographers . . . was instrumental in getting us started on our picture-taking job and provided able advice concerning our Senior and Queen pictures.

. . . Mr. Jim Cooley . . . Cleveland Engraving . . . This splendid friend and helper provided valuable information on picture lay-out and content of the book . . . He was one of the finest businessmen with whom we were ever associated.

. . . Mr. Edward Samuel . . . Samuel and Walker Printers . . . Another wonderful associate who has done a gratifying job of printing this two color book and who has done an equally gratifying job of taking a sincere interest in the book . . . He has . . . very evidently . . . gone out of his way to help us and we are very grateful.

. . . Mr. John Rieth . . . Mueller Art Cover and Binding Company . . . With his associates he has helped us considerably in producing the cover which surrounds this book.

. . . The Faculty . . . who put up with us when our staff and ourselves were called out of class to work and who displayed such consideration during those hectic days of picture taking.

. . . The Staff . . . who filled this book with the many interesting touches of Shore School life in its last year of existence are honored in the Log Staff page of the Club section.

. . . And now a heart-felt "thank you" to all mentioned . . . A "thank you" which only we . . . know how sincere it really is.
